HELLO and WELCOME !

It's the beginning of a new century and we can't think of a better time to offer you the most comprehensive listing of American numismatic auction catalogues and prices realized lists ever presented! It doesn't matter where your interests lie; with over 200 different cataloguers offering a multitude of sales, there's got to be something for you.

The importance and research value of these printed catalogues is becoming readily apparent as we head into the "electronic age" of numismatics. They provide a lasting record of appearances, rarity, and varieties. All leading researchers, cataloguers, and numismatic authors use these references as the foundation for their knowledge.

We wish to express our gratitude to David Davis, founder of the John Reich Collectors Society, for his acknowledgment of our assistance with the outstanding 1802 Half Dime research section of the new Federal Half Dimes 1792 - 1837 book by Ross Logan and John McCloskey. Also, to Mark Van Winkle, chief cataloguer for Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc., for his continued business while looking for those 19th century "A" rated sales for articles about these catalogues in the Insider magazine.

And, last but not least, to Q. David Bowers for his untiring efforts to bring the numismatic past alive. His quest for answers and reliable information has made his numerous books true numismatic treasures. Based on the thousands of auction catalogues that are being researched, his forthcoming United States Gold book will be the definitive work on the subject the moment it appears.

We invite you to learn about numismatics, as well. Our selection is great, our prices are great, and with our fast service (as Dave Bowers stated) we are "user friendly".

Elsewhere in this list you will find a few interesting replies to our commentary about unrealistically high estimates found in certain literature mail bid sales. We thank those who took the time to respond.

As always, Jenny and I say "THANK YOU" for your business. Give us a call or e-mail. We are here to assist you with your enjoyment of this interesting hobby.

Best wishes,

Karl & Jenny Moulton

HOW DO YOU WANT TO RECEIVE YOUR PACKAGE ?

Here are the options to choose from :

1. SPECIAL STANDARD (BOOK RATE). Please send $2.00 for the first item and $.75 cents for each additional item along with insurance from the table below. This is how most orders will be shipped unless another choice is requested and prepaid. This option takes anywhere from 5 days to three weeks for your package to arrive (it can be extremely slow).
2. PRIORITY MAIL. Please send $3.20 for the first item and $1.00 for each additional item along with insurance from the table below. It will take 2 to 10 days for your package to arrive as the post office will not guarantee delivery within three days.

NOTE: Shipping your order may cost more or less than the estimates above depending upon weight. You will be charged the actual shipping amount. Any additional charges will be billed; any prepaid overages will be credited to your account. Insured packages can only be traced after 30 days.

\* Any order of $20 or more for merchandise keeps you on our mailing list for one entire year. ***

PACKING & HANDLING: Please add the following charges for the number of items you order:

1 - 5.....	$ .50 per item
6 - 10.....	$ 3.00 Total
11 - 20.....	$ 5.00 Total
21 - 30.....	$ 6.00 Total
31 - 40.....	$ 8.00 Total
41 - 50.....	$10.00 Total
51 or more.....	$12.00 Total

This helps cover the cost of boxes, strapping tape, packing for the catalogues, labels, etc.
The charges listed above are, in every case, lower than the per lot fees charged in mail bid sales.

AN 1855 COIN STORY

A southern journal gives an amusing instance of the Dependencies of Society in the following domestic dialogue. The father is reading the newspaper, and mutters:

"No rise in the rivers -- never going to rise, I believe, wife."

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "I wish the rivers would rise."

FATHER. "Why, what have you got to do with the rivers rising?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "A great deal, father; for then the boats would run"

FATHER. "And what have you to do with the boats running, my child, eh?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "They would bring the cotton down, father."

FATHER (looking over his spectacles). "And what have you to do, darling, with cotton bales?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "Why, if the cotton was down you would be able to sell it, you know, dear father," smilingly.

FATHER. "And what then?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "You would have plenty of money."

FATHER. "Well?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER (laying her little hand on his shoulder, and looking up into his face). "Then you could pay mother that twenty-dollar gold piece you borrowed of her, you know, father."

FATHER. "And what then, child?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "Then mother could pay Aunt Sarah the ten dollars she owed her."

FATHER. "Ay -- indeed! And what then?"

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "And Aunt Sarah would pay sister Jane the dollar she promised to give her on New Year's, but didn't because she didn't have any cotton -- any money, I mean, father."

FATHER. "Well, and what else?" (He lays down the newspaper and looks at her Cautiously, with half a smile.)

LITTLE DAUGHTER. "Sister Jane would pay brother John his fifty cents back, and he said when he got it he would give me the half-dime he owes me, and two dimes to buy marbles -- and this is what I want the river to rise for, and the big boats to run! And I owe nurse the other dime, and must pay my debts!"

"Pa" looked at "Ma." "There it is," he said; "we are all, big and little, like a row of bricks. Touch one, and away we all go, even down to our little Carrie, here. She has, as a child, as great an interest in the rise of the river as I have. We are all, old and young, waiting for money to buy marbles."

A good lesson for debtor and creditor, too, and well enforced.

THE CATALOGUES OF Q. DAVID BOWERS

Bowers & Ruddy Galleries, in Hollywood, California, named their auction division the American Auction Association; the first eleven sales bear this name. A strong beginning with the Armand Champa Sale in 1972 led to success after success.

The 3 John Beck Sales

by Abner Kreisberg

They contain an extensive run of U.S. Gold coins, Territorial Gold, and a hoard of 1856 Flying Eagle Cents. All the major rarities are here. The catalogues are well illustrated and belong in every numismatic library. If you were to purchase them singly with copies of PR's, they would cost you $23. Save yourself some money and get some excellent material for your reference library at the same time. This is a special deal for Near Mint catalogues.

MAIL BID SALE ESTIMATES -- AN UPDATE

by Karl Moulton

In our November, 1999 list we presented a commentary about unrealistically high estimates and the practice of not accepting less than 50% of that estimate.

The following are some excerpts from that commentary:

"There is no direct competition, yet many times we see very high bids on seemingly common material. This is due partly to the cataloguer placing estimates for each lot and then not accepting any bids less than 50% of that estimate. To put it another way -- the mail bid sales are, in effect, minimum fixed price lists. So watch out, you could get railroaded.

"Estimates are fine if they are realistic, but the practice of not accepting bids of less than 50% of the cataloguer's estimate is questionable to this writer. If they want a minimum or opening bid, then it should be stated and listed as such. I urge discussion among other literature dealers and collectors to address this practice to determine whether it is beneficial or should be reworded.

"As with coins, there seems to be no end in sight for the 10-15% 'buyer's fee', but just remember -- with a fixed price list offering such as this one, there are no extra 'buyer's fees' involved."

Several letters were received which formed a consensus of agreement. It all boils down to the buyer, who must decide whether or not to tender a bid per the terms of sale listed in the catalogue.

Here are just a few replies:

"Auctioneers who routinely sell good books or catalogues for less than half of fair market value are not serving their consignors well. It seems to me that unrealistically high estimates are at the heart of the matter. Inherent in your reasoning is criticism of one or more numismatic literature dealers and that leaves you open to a charge of self-advancement. Because of this, I have long been disinclined to expound on the issue, though I believe that your motives, and mine in writing this letter, derive from a desire to protect the best interests of our clientele. No one likes to find out that they have overpaid, and the resulting disenchantment hurts buyers and sellers both. You are to be commended for exposing this problem."

George F. Kolbe, Fine Numismatic Books

"Your comments on Fixed vs Mail Bid were good. After the proverbial smoke clears, a collectible is only worth what another will pay for it..... Personally, I know of one auction house which refers to bids under 60% of estimate as being "frivolous." I feel the advent, years ago, of the "buyers fee" to be another scam. Imagine paying someone for the "privilege" of "letting you" spend your money? The concept is absurd."

It was coin dealer Ed Cogan who, in 1869, presented the first plated U.S. coin auction catalogue (the MacKenzie collection). Earlier Cogan was responsible for the first coin mail bid sale in 1858. He also issued the first priced "post sale" catalogue in December of 1859. This is why he is popularly referred to as "the father of coin collecting in America".

For the most part, pricing was done by hand inside the catalogues during the 19th century, making printed prices realized lists very scarce. The actual rarity of early printed prices realized lists is, at present, undetermined. There are a few still floating around, but no census has ever been taken.

There was a short series of four printed prices realized lists issued by the New England Numismatic and Archaeological Society in the early 1870's. This was continued in the 1880's with a few other cataloguers issuing their own lists. As a general rule, original printed prices realized lists prior to 1900 are the rarest and most over-looked numismatic collectible, based on actual production and current availability. They have virtually been ignored for decades. It should be remembered there were no published price guides or "Trends" at that point in time.

The cataloguers' main objective was to issue the sale catalogues and conduct the sale. After the sale had taken place, they figured the "important buyers" were in attendance and had priced their own copies. Issuing a printed price list was a secondary consideration. The normal charge was $1 to cover the printing and postage, which was quite a substantial sum then. Apparently, very few collectors sent their dollar in, judging from the amount extant.

Some earlier dealers such as the Chapmans, Max Mehl, Abe Kosoff, Abner Kreisberg, and Paramount International Coin Corp. printed a good amount of prices realized lists. Mehl printed some on thick, glossy paper where the extra-wide margins took up more space than the prices. It was all part of his promotional efforts to successfully sell coins through the mail bid format. Not one of his 116 sales was ever a public auction.

A careful examination of previous literature mail bid sales will reveal the significant lack of printed prices realized lists offered with auction catalogues. The catalogues themselves are sometimes difficult to obtain. An original PR is part of the sale and since it is scarcer, it has a much greater potential as a collectible.

Even today it is sometimes difficult to get an original printed copy. The modern format is to post them on the company's web page, saving the costs involved with printing and mailing. In the future the auction catalogues, prices realized, and most coin business in general, will be conducted electronically. This means even fewer "hard copies" will be available for reference.

We have the largest selection of original printed prices realized lists available; and we are genuinely interested in purchasing anything that is not contained in this list. As you can see, most of the time we can offer only photocopies. Even today, we normally go through ten copies of any specific sale before a single "PR" shows up. That's because the originals are that scarce!

Check this list over carefully. There are lots of opportunities to "complete" your catalogue reference collection by adding the very important prices realized list for each sale.

PRICES REALIZED LISTS AVAILABLE

This is a list of all the prices realized lists we have on file. No catalogues are included in this section, though they can still be found elsewhere in this fixed price list. After a listing, "C.... O...." indicates either a photocopy (C) or an original (O) prices realized list is available and at what price. An original PR list is the most overlooked item in numismatics. All original prices realized lists are subject to prior sale. Supply is limited to stock on hand.
